The farm's production is represented by Vernaccia di San Gimignano grapes followed by other vineyards cultivated with Sangiovese, Merlot, Chardonnay, Cabernet Sauvignon, Riesling, Syrah, Trebbiano, Malvasia, Malvasia Nera grapes and very small productions of Canaiolo, Colorino and Alicante.

The Farm stands out for its wine production of reds, whites and vin santo, as well as for its excellent extra virgin olive oil.

All production is certified organic.

The average annual production is as follows:

Wine: approximately 650 hectoliters Extra virgin olive oil: approximately 4,000 liters

The location was certainly inhabited since the 15th century. In fact, there are still traces of the original rural construction found in the central part of the village. At the end of the 1990s it was completely restored maintaining the charm and typical characteristics of Tuscan houses and apartments for tourist activities were created in the old buildings along the estate.

Its strategic position allows you to quickly reach important cities of art such as Siena, Florence, Pisa and Lucca and typical Tuscan villages such as Volterra, Medieval Certaldo and the Etruscan coast.

The property is equipped with LPG heating, water supply from the main network, 3 lakes for irrigation and a hunting reserve.

The sale price includes the furnishings of the apartments intended for agritourism activities
